Muscores Trumpet Collection What's in it: This is the website of the very-known music notation software Muscores, which by the way is awesome and 100% free. Its users publish their compositions and arrangements for anyone to download, although some are for Pro users only. Link: IMSLP What's in it: The music community would be incomplete without IMSLP, where you can find most sheet music that is public domain, meaning free for anyone to download. Just go the their landing page and do a search for the genre you're interested in. For example, if you search "trumpet solos" you will find a list of public domain solos. But you can also search for "Mahler Symphony 5" and acquire the full orchestra sheet music, then print it all or just the trumpet parts. Awesome sauce. Link: imslp.org/wiki/Main_Page Trumpet Music Online What's in it: This is a page that takes you to the creator's youtube channel, which has lots and lots of videos of popular music (from movies, tv, radio) covers for trumpet with the sheet music scrolling on the video. The player is a 16 year old trumpeter from the Netherlands who really loves trumpet. How awesome is that?! Link: www.trumpetmusiconline.com Free-Scores What's in it: Lots of free sheet music! Yay! You can download the music PDF to your computer. They do ask that you leave a comment in exchange, and although you don't have to, returning the favor is always nice. Link: free-scores.com/free-sheet-music.php? CATEGORIE=180 Trumpet Ensemble Music What's in it: About 20 free downloads for trumpet solo and ensembles. Simple and to the point! Link: trumpetensemlemusic.com Budgets are tight and still we need material to practice. I have been searching the Internet for some time and have collected a large source of sites which offer free music for the trumpet. Some are good and most are a waist of time. I have selected my top thirteen sources for free music written for, or adaptable for trumpet use. If, after reading this post you have additional sites to suggest, please send your information to me and I will update my listings on a later post. These listings are from the best to the less valuable, indicated with stars (= best). This, although dated, is one of the best sources for free trumpet material. Not only has Mr. Lichtmann included trumpet solos, and study material, but he also offers many brass ensembles arrangements as well.  This site features twenty free arrangements for trumpet ensembles which includes various styles as well as study material. I highly recommend this site, even if it is one of mine.  Please note that Free Sheet Music-Remembering Newtown, Connecticut- Trumpet Choir is no longer offered for free. You will be overwhelmed by the number of offerings at this site. Working your way through all of the listed offerings will take you some time but once you become familiar with the format, you will have access to a vast amount of free material. Many of the arrangements are offered in Finale format which means you can download them into a Finale program and alter them to fit your needs,  This is another large collection of trumpet solos. Some are Classical material and many are from both professional as well as armature composers. When you have found something of interest, click on the picture, then on the PDF file to download your music.  The National Library of Congress will offer you an enormous source for sheet music. Most will be written for piano and voice but if you can transpose, you will have more than enough material for your earlier music needs.  Great amount of quality music here.  Scores featuring the trumpet This site offers a large collection of trumpet solos and ensembles which include trumpet. You will have to spend some time going through all of the levels to find the trumpet material. Navigating through the searches will be your biggest problem. * This site features a few unaccompanied trumpet solos. They could make fine material for practicing.  You'll find a few trumpet solos at this site. Most are very short but could be of benefit to you. View the material by selecting the number and clicking on "Letter pdf file. **
